Jessica joined TLP as an Associate Attorney when the Firm first opened its doors in 2011 and has been an integral member of the team since the Firm’s inauguration. She advises telecommunications clients on a wide range of regulatory, compliance and policy issues before the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”), including privacy matters and CPNI, radio and television broadcast reporting, e911 and WEA requirements, CVAA considerations, spectrum auctions and secondary market acquisitions, the Universal Service Fund and Mobility Fund, and other broadband-related matters. Jessica has extensive experience in overseeing the regulatory aspects of several major merger transactions, including coordinating and preparing responses to interrogatory and document requests, complying with confidentiality protective orders, communicating with FCC staff and securing the approval of Team Telecom and the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (“CFIUS”). Jessica also frequently appears on industry panels to discuss spectrum and broadband-related issues and other breaking developments in communications.

Jessica’s transactional work involves the drafting and negotiation of both submarine cable and fiber optic cable system arrangements, within the United States and internationally. These agreements include both subsea and terrestrial projects and often involve complex issues such as access rights, equipment purchases, and maintenance services. Jessica also devotes time to many of TLP’s pro bono projects including work on adoption, custody and healthcare matters.
